

Internet Safety Information Program

Face Book, You Tube, instant messaging, chat rooms, blogging, texting...How can I keep my child safe?

If you want to know more about helping your child use the internet safely and wisely, please join us for a special presentation by

Sergeant Charles Dyac and Detective Michael Niven from the Hudson Police Department.

They will share their extensive training and experience in the field, and offer effective prevention strategies to use at home.

What: An interactive presentation on cyber safety for parents of children and teens

When: Tuesday, May 13, 2008, 6:30 – 8:00 P.M.

Where: Campbell High School Auditorium, Litchfield, NH

The Litchfield School District is grateful to Sergeant Dyac and Detective Niven for generously donating their time for this important community service.

For more information, please contact Fern Seiden at fseiden@litchfieldsd.org or call 424-5931, ext. 1106.

Organizedd by the Litchfield School Guidance Program, in cooperation with the Litchfield Police Department